Request for Modification of Supervised Release

On January 29, 2014, this office was informed the probation office for the Central District of California had begun a relocation investigation for Mr. Reed who is presently incarcerated at FCI, Victorville, California. He is scheduled to be released on August 18, 2015, to the Central District of California, providing his case is accepted for supervision. They have reviewed his documentation and requested we approach the Court to request the addition of two special conditions as listed on page one of this petition. It appears the acceptance of his case in the Central District of California is contingent upon the addition of these special conditions.

Mr. Reed does have a considerable criminal history and a condition for warrantless search will serve as a deterrent to future criminal behavior while on supervised release. The condition for employment program participation will provide for additional skills to improve his ability to obtain and maintain employment.

On January 16, 2014, Mr. Reed was provided a waiver of hearing to modify supervision with the proposed conditions listed. Mr. Reed signed the document agreeing to the modification. A copy of the waiver is attached to this petition.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is respectfully recommended that Mr. Reed's special conditions of supervision be modified as indicated in the petition. Assistant U.S. Attorney Sandra Moses and Assistant Federal Public Defender Isaiah Gant have been advised of the proposed modification and they have no objections. Upon his release from incarceration we will request that jurisdiction be transferred to the Central District of California.
